INTRODUCTION

INTRODUCTION

The Statistical Yearbook of the Federal University of Ceará is presented in its 2017 edition, gathering the information concerning the year of 2016. With this publication – elaborated by the administrative staff of the Provost Office of Planning and Management – UFC reports the most relevant productions in the areas of teaching, research and extension to society and to the general public. It also presents detailed information about its structure, monetary plan and management.

Thus, a valuable document is generated, transcribing in its own way a year in the university's history, which the whole community helps writing. It has recently aggregated new chapters which resize the institution and which definitely place it among the biggest and best in the country.

Nowadays, UFC offers 118 onsite undergraduate programs, as well as nine in the distance education modality. There are 45 doctoral programs and 71 master's programs. Among our professors, 264 are qualified as productivity researchers of the National Council for Scientific and Technological Development (CNPq), integrating 370 certified research groups.

There are campuses in the capital and also in the state's countryside, in the cities of Crateús, Quixadá, Russas and Sobral. By expanding its frontiers, UFC is more present in Ceará people's lives. Therefore, the public benefitted by the extension activities corresponds to approximately 4 million people, distributed throughout all the cities in the state.

At the same time, the university goes through the process of internationalization and establishes new cooperation agreements with institutions abroad. Due to this expansion of frontiers, the Provost Office of International Affairs was created in 2016. With the same purpose of improving the administrative structure and adjusting it to new demands, the fusion of the Provost Offices of Planning and Management was promoted and the Secretariat of Governance was established.

It is natural that all this effort to offer a high-quality public higher education to society results in an increasingly positive projection of UFC's image in the national and international scenarios. In the ranking of the Brazilian universities presented by the newspaper "Folha de São Paulo", our institution was ranked in 10th in the general scope, increasing to the 7th position when focusing on the Federal Institutions of Higher Education, and in first place among all universities in Brazil's Northeast. On its turn, the Entrepreneurial Universities Ranking, presented by the Brazilian Confederation of Junior Companies (Brasil Júnior), attributed to UFC the 5th national position and first in the country's North/Northeast.

This is the path towards excellence and the expectations of the people from Ceará. This is a path where we advance step by step, year after year, without time for setbacks. The path we accomplished in 2016 – a year of challenges and difficulties for all Brazilians – was not affected by the adversities in politics and economy which, on the contrary, encourage us to fight even more for the public university's high quality, for its autonomy and insertion in society.

14. PROVOST OFFICE OF INTERNATIONAL AFFAIRS (PROINTER)

The Provost Office of International Affairs (PROINTER) is the administrative unit responsible for the articulation, implementation and supervision of internationalization policies and activities at the Federal University of Ceará (UFC).

These actions aim at the academic, scientific and technology innovation excellence of the university by means of the following initiatives: the establishment of exchange programs and agreements with foreign higher education and research institutions, accomplished by the Coordination of Exchange and International Agreements; the development of a multilingual linguistic policy at the institution, established by the Coordination of Linguistic Internationalization; and the promotion of international academic mobility of professors, researchers, undergraduate and graduate students and administrative staff, accomplished by the Coordination of Academic Mobility. The mobility is provided not only for Brazilians who apply to a period of studies at foreign universities, but also for foreigners who intend to accomplish their studies at UFC.

The Provost Office is responsible for the elaboration and implementation of cooperation agreements with 320 universities in 37 countries: Germany, Angola, Argentina, Australia, Austria, Belgium, Cape Verde, Canada, Chile, China, Colombia, Congo-Kinshasa, Cuba, Denmark, Ecuador, Slovakia, Spain, the United States, France, Guinea-Bissau, India, Israel, Italy, Japan, Mexico, Mozambique, the Netherlands, Pakistan, Peru, Portugal, United Kingdom, Czech Republic, Romania, Sweden, Switzerland, Suriname and Uruguay. These agreements comprise activities at undergraduate and graduate level.

Among the exchange programs coordinated by PROINTER, we have the ones from Santander Universidades, which normally award a grant to the selected students, and the academic mobility, by means of which the student can accomplish a period of studies from six months to a year at a foreign higher education institution, but without receiving a grant. There are also other programs, such as ELAP, INSA and PAEC, which are not coordinated by PROINTER, but the Provost Office takes part in the registration and sending of the application documents of the selected students.

Two programs in particular are coordinated by PROINTER, by means of which students do not accomplish academic mobility, but are regular students at an undergraduate or a graduate program: The Students Program - Undergraduate Agreement (PEC-G) and the Students Program - Graduate Agreement (PEC-PG).

PEC-G and PEC-PG, which were developed by the Ministry of Foreign Affairs, by the Ministry of Education and by public and private universities, offer opportunities of higher education to citizens from developing countries which Brazil maintains educational and cultural agreements with. The program started in 1974 and nowadays, UFC hosts 92 PEC-G/PEC-PG students from 19 countries: Angola, Barbados, Benin, Cape Verde, Bolivia, Cameroon, Colombia, Gabon, Guinea-Bissau, Jamaica, Mozambique, Nigeria, Panama, Peru, Democratic Republic of the Congo, São Tomé and Príncipe, Senegal, East Timor and Togo.
